History of 'The Murderers'...

Over the past 180 years, the landlords and landladies of The Gardeners Arms / Murderers have formed a diverse and fascinating history - and always a family owned, independent freehouse.

There is truly an abundance of history to this building, which dates back to 1696. These include: births, deaths, and the now infamous 1895 murder of Mildred 'Millie' Miles by her estranged husband...
